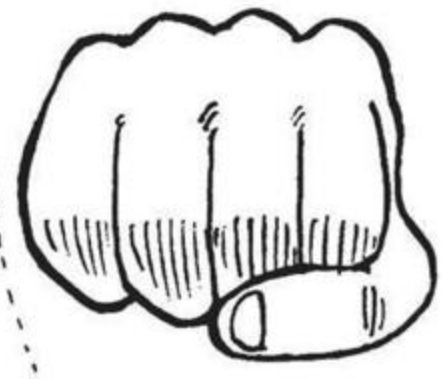
Let's make a Sproingy Luffy!

Part I

Part II



Part III

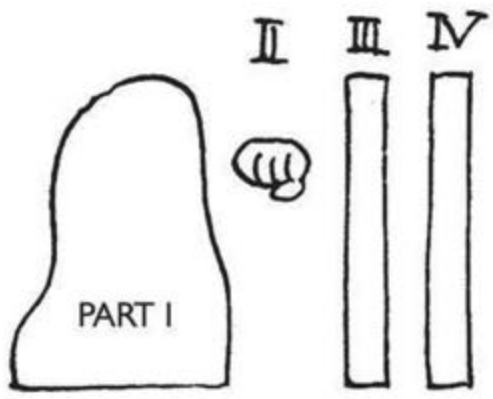
Part IV

How to make a Sproingy Luffy:

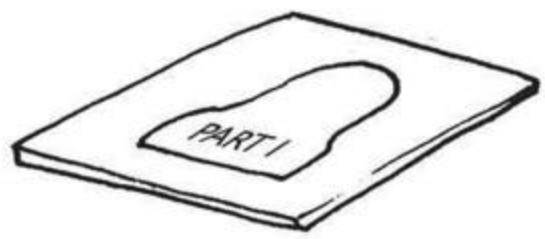
You need:
Scissors - Glue or paste - Crayons, markers, or colored pencils - Stiff paper - The strong will to make Sproingy Luffy

Instructions:

1. Color! To start out, color the various parts of Luffy. (Have fun!) Use flesh color for Parts II, III and IV. People who don't like messing up their books can make a photocopy to color and cut out instead.



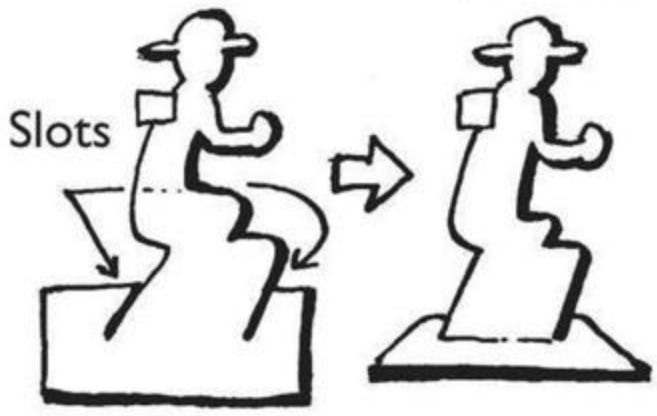
2. Cut it out! Cut out Part I along the dotted line, and cut out the pieces for Parts II, III and IV, following the lines.
3. Paste Part I onto a piece of stiff paper.
4. Wait for the glue to dry. Act cool. You can dance while you wait, too.



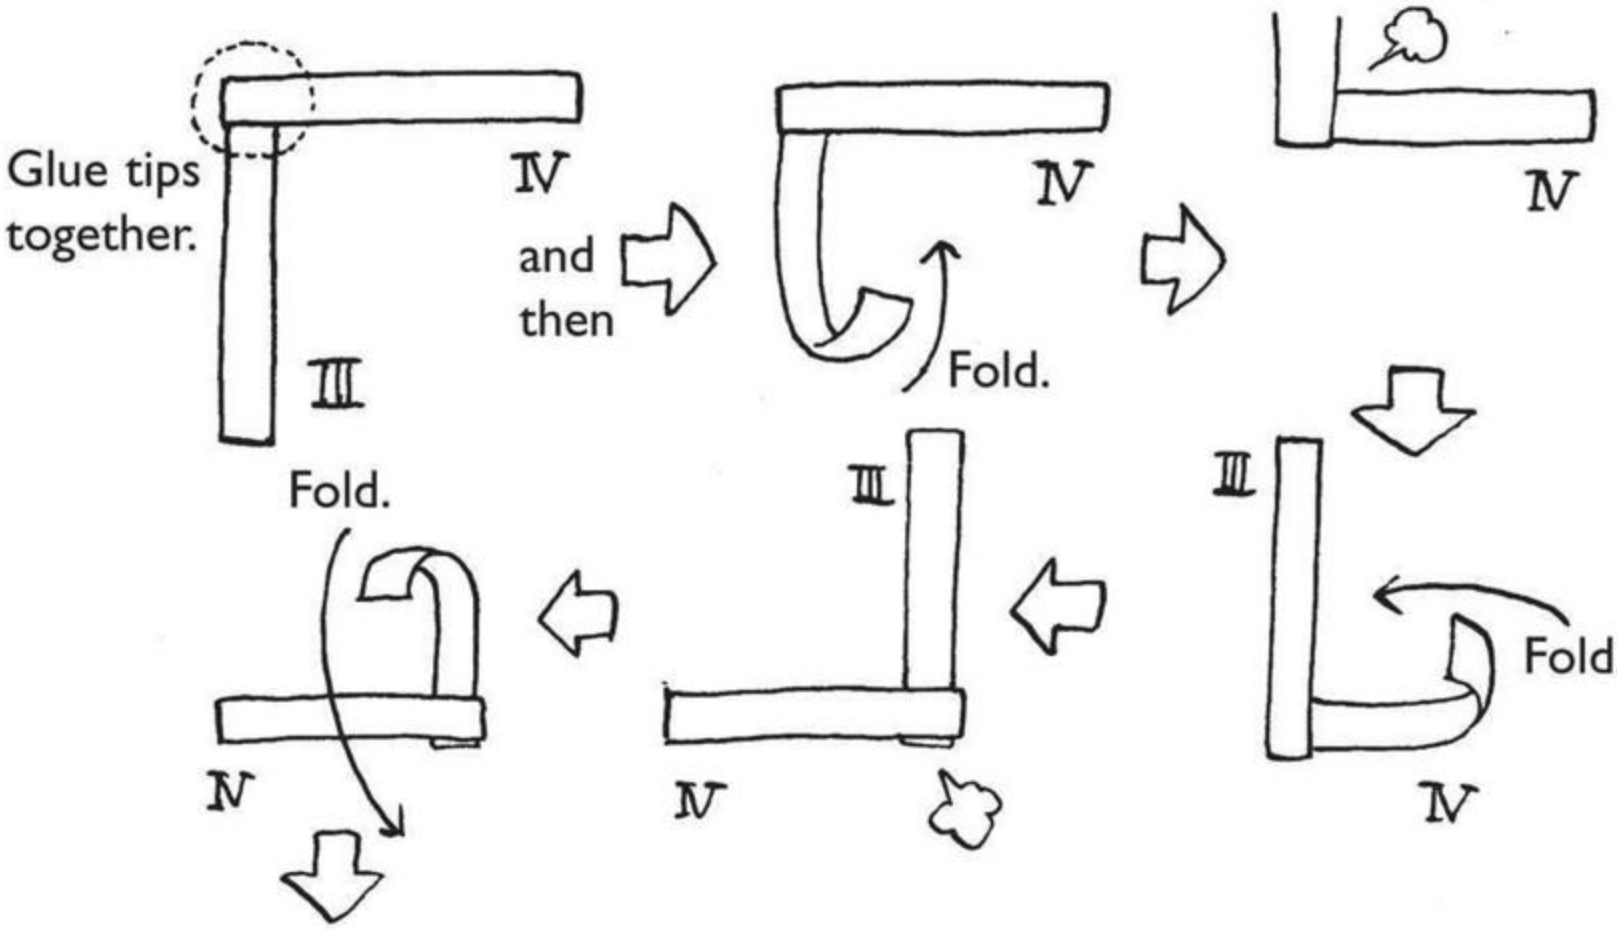
Let it Dry!

5. Cut out Part I (you'll be cutting the stiff paper, too), following Luffy's outline this time. Do it all powerful-like! Carefully cut the slots, following the thick lines around his legs, and make Luffy stand up.

Ta-Da!



6. Glue Part III and Part IV at right angles to each other, just at the tips!



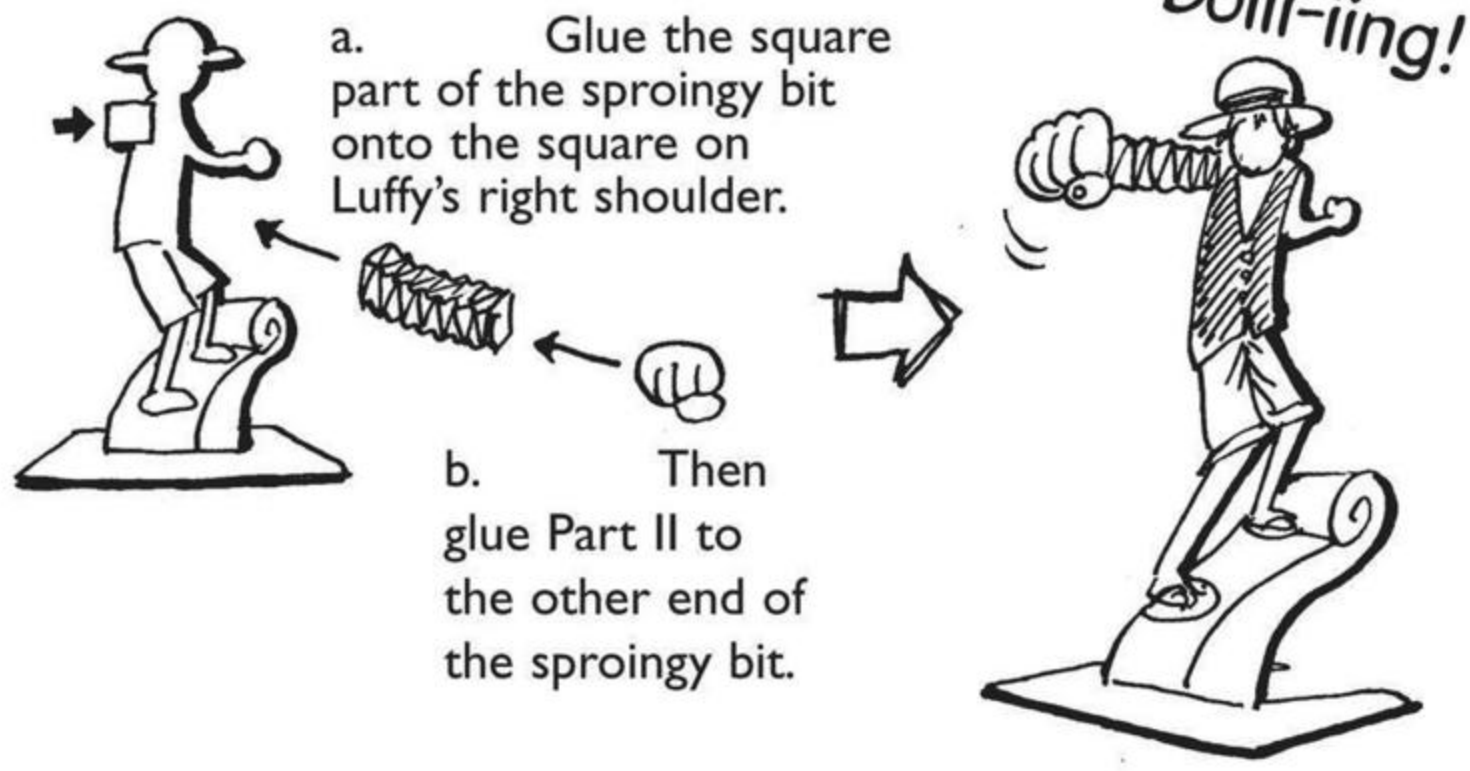
And so on and so forth, folding them over and over each other like you're weaving.

← You should get something sproingy like this thing.

↙ Glue the other ends together, and then you're done with this part!

7. Assemble (Rise, Luffy, Rise!)

8. COMPLETION!



a. Glue the square part of the sproingy bit onto the square on Luffy's right shoulder.
b. Then glue Part II to the other end of the sproingy bit.
boiii-iing!
